

Win a scholarship.

Take the SCAD Challenge and put your artistic vision to the test.

The undergraduate challenge is open to current juniors and seniors in high school as of the 2020-21 academic year. The transfer challenge is open to any student planning to transfer to SCAD during the 2021-22 academic year. The graduate challenge is open to any student planning to enroll in a SCAD graduate program for fall quarter 2021.

A panel of SCAD faculty will review and evaluate your submitted entry, and winners will be selected from each category.

Apply and complete your submission by Feb. 15, 2021. Winners will be announced March 5, 2021.

To learn more about the SCAD Challenge, visit scad.edu/challenge.

Challenges

Undergraduate.

- 2D design
- 3D design
- Animation and game design
- Fashion
- Film
- Graphic design
- Performing arts
- Photography
- Writing

Graduate.

- 2D and 3D design
- Digital media (animation, game design, and graphic design)
- Entertainment arts (film, performing arts, writing)
- Fashion
- Photography

Transfer.

- Submit a single piece of artwork from any single undergraduate category. The artwork does not need to be from your major of interest, but the piece that best represents you as an artist or designer.

SCAD The University for Creative Careers